

84 Lumber Receives the Export Impact Award

84 Lumber's World Trade Department was named the winner of the inaugural Export Impact Award by Gov. Tom Corbett of Pennsylvania in Harrisburg on May 23, 2013. The decision was based on four categories; Increased exports over the past 3 years, number of countries exported to, challenges overcome to export and utilization of government export programs.

Mark Reginelli stated that over the past 3 years, 84 Lumber's World Trade Department has shipped to China, Korea, Mongolia, Taiwan, Russia, Antigua, Aruba, Bahamas, Turks and Caicos, Mexico and Chile.

Read more about 84 Lumber's International current and upcoming events at www.84internationalsales.com